“ I think of Aunt Betty as someone who was always laughing. She had a very specific laugh that I could pick out anywhere, and I can hear very clearly in my mind. I know she loved her family (kids, grandkids, and husband) so dearly. In fact, I always thought of Aunt Betty and Uncle Jimmy as being very in love even after so many years of marriage, despite lots of teasing between them! They seemed to really, really enjoy one another’s company. I know she raised daughters who will carry her spirit into the future. My love to Katie, Vicki, and Uncle Jimmy.

I have the EXACT same memories and sentiments. The tribute video is beautiful and highlights all of her joy with her family and in life in general. Sending love to Katie, Vicki, and Uncle Jimmy and hope that each of you finds comfort in leaning on one another to help get through this time.
