

Elizabeth A. Plum

March 31, 1958 - May 31, 2022

Elizabeth A. Plum “Liz” on May 31, 2022 of Deptford. Age 64. Loving mother of George L. Plum (Lauren) of Deptford, Christopher C. Plum (Kristi) of Sewell and Elizabeth G. Plum (Bill) of Deptford. Devoted wife to George R. Plum of Deptford. Beloved sister of Lou Petrella (Debbie) of Whippany, NJ, Meg Skotnicki (Dan) of Deptford and Tom Petrella (Stephanie) of Newark, DE. Beloved sister-in-law to Erik C. Plum (Anita) of Williamstown and the late Richard A. Plum. Devoted grandmother of Fiona, Savannah, Michael and Sophia on the way. Cherished aunt of Danielle, Louis, Anna, Joseph, Gina and Christina.

Liz was the person that instantly lit up the room when she walked in. She had the ability to make everyone she talked to feel like they mattered most and would genuinely listen to every detail shared. Being with family and friends and celebrating life was her favorite thing to do. A celebration wasn't complete without her Italian knot cookies, delicious vanilla cupcakes, and perfectly arranged flowers and her infectious smile.

Liz loved talking about our hometown sports teams and the celebrity awards shows. Her love for snowy days and Sunday with Sinatra was contagious and with every snowfall of the season we awaited a call or snow emoji. Liz was a long-time employee of Beautiful Blooms in Philadelphia. She made a lasting impression on the countless people she encountered daily and became very close with many of her co-workers, she considered them family.

Of all the things that she loved, spending time with her family was paramount. Family dinners were planned with special details specific to each family member. She would always be the last to finish a meal, because she kept the conversation going and always wanted to know what was going on in her children and grandchildren's lives. Not only was it important for her to be at every event, she also had to create the perfect sign to honor the occasion. We never had to worry about forgetting a birthday. She was the one reminding each one of us who's birthday was that day. There is so much more that we could say about our incredibly strong and loving Mother. She was such a unique and beautiful person inside and out. Her smile, laugh and genuine heart will forever illuminate all of our lives.

“ As her obituary describes Liz was the life of any event. I never met a person more loving, caring and compassionate. It was my pleasure to have worked with her in Woodbury at an insurance agency where I also met her kids and family. I always enjoyed talking with her and sharing our experiences in growing up. She loved her family and especially her kids and was a great mom. Liz was a friend's friend and accepted everyone for who they were. I will miss her and her beautiful smile. Thank you family for sharing her with me.

“ To the Plum and Petrella families: We are so sorry for your loss. Liz was such a beautiful person, inside and out. She was very special to us even though we only got to see her on Thanksgiving. She left us far too soon. But we know she is with Jesus now -- we have no doubts about that. And that is a comfort along with the knowledge that we will see her again one day. We sympathize with you in the sadness of your loss, and are asking God to grant you all a sense of peace and comfort through your time of mourning. May God bless you all.
