*I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I worked with mom at the Harrison House
And oh what fun we had. I haven't seen her in a while but think of her often, I love that little smile she always had, her spunkiness and that Sweet little accent she had. I always wished I had her energy. I loved listening to her stories about being raised on the farm. She really was a very special person always made you feel special. I know she'll be missed very much. Rest easy Evelyn, your friend Bonnie Karbett*
