

Felice " Phil" N. Pilla Sr.

January 16, 1960 - August 8, 2025

Felice N Pilla, 65, of Washington Township, New Jersey, passed away on August 8, 2025 with his children by his side.

Born and raised in South Philadelphia, Phil was was strong-willed and resilient man who met every challenge head-on. A fighter till the very end, he lived his life with grit, determination, and steadfast commitment to the people and the principles he loved.

Phil built a long and successful career in the printing and graphic arts industry, where his work ethic and attention to detail earned the respect of colleagues and clients alike. Outside of work, he found joy spending time with his family and the companionship of his beloved animals, whose presence brought warmth and laughter to his home. He is survived by his son, Felice Pilla Jr., his daughter Kristin Pilla, and his cherished granddaughter, Marley Bendana, who will carry forward his legacy of strength and love.

At the request of his family, all services are private.
