

Florence M. Andalaro

July 30, 1925 - December 2, 2017

Florence M. Andalaro (nee Terragrossa), of Westville Grove, passed peacefully on December 2, 2017 after blessed with 92 years. Beloved wife of the late John Andalaro, Jr., and loving mother of Josephine McCloskey (Henry) of Williamstown, Rosemarie Caramanna (Austin) of Blackwood, and Diane Brenner (Christian) of Westville. Devoted grandmother of Joseph, John, Kristina, Jenna Rose, Phil and Christian, and special grandmother of Anja and Brian. Great-grandmother of Owen. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A beautiful and generous woman, Florence was a founding member of Most Holy Redeemer Church and a member of the Altar and Rosary Society. She was a former secretary at the Philadelphia Naval Ship Yard and Dunn & Bradstreet in Philadelphia. She worked for over fifty years at the Andalaro Farms. She enjoyed spending time with her family, traveling, and volunteering for various activities of the church, including preparation of food for Bingo, and crafts for Vacation Bible School. She also cherished her time spent volunteering at Underwood Memorial Hospital for almost twenty years, as well as knitting hats for the newborn babies. She graciously shared her knitting skills with the 5th grade class at Most Holy Redeemer as they knit blankets for the homeless. Florence always had room at her table for a last-minute visitor or a friend who needed comfort. She had a heart of gold and a warm embrace. Her legacy of love will live in our hearts forever.
