Such beauty, grace and elegance. Her marvelous sense of humor made her smile all the more beautiful. May the peace of Christ lift you up and comfort us with fond memories. God bless, the Frommeyer family.

“ My memory of "Mrs. G". was that of someone who loved her family. She was always happiest participating at family gatherings, and she had a funny/dry sense of humor. She was proud of her Polish heritage, and many times would spar with me on word pronunciation and various foods & traditions. Most of all she had a big heart. Her loss is bitter sweet. A final good bye to to a family Matriarch, but knowing she is pain free and dancing a Polka in heaven. Good bye sweet Lady. Love Connie Hillard

“ Hey Barbara. It's been a long time. Your Mom was very special to me. I have wonderful memories of being at your house with you & your Mom & Dad. They taught me a lot about my Polish heritage. I used to enjoy her visits with my Mom at our house in Seaford. I will keep her & the rest of your family in my prayers. Stay well. Mary Jean

“ Hey Mrs. G...Just want to take a minute to pay my respects. It's already too quiet here without you. The pups are wondering where you are. We were just looking at pictures of all of your Birthday bashes and your trips with Marion to Alaska and on the QE2. Our trips to San Antonio, New Orleans and the Outer Banks were fun too! You always had the knack of finding fun whether you were traveling, Bowling or Bingo at your Clubhouse in Mt. Laurel or the Deptford Senior Center. Beside all of that, the most important thing for you were your Family and your Friends. I hope you find peace and more fun at that big Polka Party in the sky. Give my love to everyone there. I can't be as clever as Margie, so I will just end with - We will miss you and Go with God! Love always, Lin

“ Mrs. G. The world is a quieter place without you. Heaven is a lot noisier. :o) I miss you already. We did not share the same gene pool but you were a very special part of our family. Thank you for sharing your daughter, Barb, with us. She is a treasured "sister" in our family. She gives of herself to each and every one of us - unconditionally. Your sons, Eddie and Larry, are equally kind-hearted souls. That is a testament to YOU. I treasured our LONG talks. Your "memory lane" was a road well-traveled. Your memories of your days growing up in New York brought me back in time. You touched a lot of lives. It does my heart good that you will now be united with all those precious souls in your life that you often spoke to me about. Your reunion with your husband and beloved son, Eddie, will surely light up the skies. Thank you for being a precious part of my memories. I will forever treasure them. Heaven has a new "angel". Her name is Frances. R.I.P my sweet Polish friend. Until we meet again. Love, always/k

“ You welcomed me into your family as another daughter. You shared your youngest son with me and for that I am ever in your debt. You shared your love and knowledge of the family history through stories and laughter. Our girls could not have been given a greater Babcia than you. Our family saw the deepest most selfless love of Barbara and Linda as they provided the most loving care to you in such a compassionate way. Your strength and Polish grit kept you with us to have developed the greatest memories of better days. It will be those wonderful memories that will have to fill our hearts as they mend the brokenness without you. Rest easy now Mom, and watch over all of us as only a Mother / Grandmother can do! We are comforted knowing that so many were there waiting to welcome you home! Xoxo Larry, Margie, Jessica and Katie

“ Mrs. G. - What a great lady! Thank you for bringing such joy to my life. I smile knowing that you always loved the best things in life & they made sure you had it. You loved your Husband, children, grand children, friends and thought highly of your parents. My most favorite thing of when I think of you was that remarkable sense of humor, in which, I will always cherish! I will never eat a roll without thinking of you and laugh. Sleep well with your Angels in heaven. My sincere condolences to the family! Love Susie
