“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4. I hope this brings you comfort.

“ I have found memories of Mr. DeMartino as my first shop teacher in Cinnaminson Middle School in the mid 70's. He always was a true gentleman and was always kept our attention by using songs, pun's and corny jokes to remember the names of tools and safety tips.I still remember the wooden tool box that he had us make for Father's Day, which is still in my mother's garage.My condolences to his family and I hope there are still teachers today that have the dedication he had.

“ I had Mr. DeMartino as my wood shop teacher in Middle school in the early 70's. Everyone loved this man and we all still remember the songs and things he made us do to remember the tools and how to use them. My love for wood working and other hobbies stemmed from this man. I know he will have God standing on a table chanting, "Give me an R, give me an A, give me an S, give me a P..... May God bless this man and the family!! He was a special influence in my life. Thank you!!!!
