Beautiful, Frank was a wonderful person . I will always remember the time we spent doing baseball with the boys on the same teams from start to finish and all the championship games in between. He was such a proud father.

“ I was so shocked to hear of Frank's passing. I will always remember Frank as a friend to my husband Joe and me. He took care of all the repairs in our house and made quite a few suggestions as to what would look nice. So very sorry Jane for your loss and for young Frankie's loss too. He loved you both very much and spoke highly of you. My thought and prayers are with you.
