“ I will remember Frank for his kindness. He was never in any hurry when he was talking or visiting with you. Frank made you feel welcome and important to him. He could have written a book on how to be a good listener and return nothing but kindness with a gentle smile. I always respected him as an honest "working man" who loved his family, understood what was truly important, and what was truly funny! Frank and Rose were the definition of two peas in a pod, and now they are sharing that little pod of togetherness in heaven. May God Bless you all. Thank you for sharing your dad, grandfather, and great grandfather with us for so many years. Everyone should be blessed with such a wonderful neighbor. I don't know how he put up with us sometimes when we were kids, but he did. May he rest peacefully and be remembered for all his goodness. Sending love and prayers and angels to surround you. Love, Julia

“ Growing up next door to Frank and Rose it was a comfort to see Frank walking back to his shop to begin his day. He was always so sweet and pleasant always had a kind word to say. He was a great man and loved to take care of his family. He is now at peace with Rose and the old neighborhood. May God give you all peace. Janice Rastelli-Minor
