“ *Frank Ristango was revered and respected in the apparel industry. Frank was not only well known in the Philadelphia area but throughout industry circles. His business knowledge was far reaching and highly sought after. His kind and personable manner, his endearing sense of humor, and his ability to solve problems helped build long term relationships with his clientele. His family owned company endures today and continues to grow due in no small part to Franks commitment to his employees as well as his numerous long time customers. “ Frank was so excited at this Flyers game that Bernie was in the cigar lounge! We were not leaving for certain until I took a picture of he and Bernie. He was so happy. I can imagine what is going on in the heavens above with these two!

My thoughts and prayers are with Michael, Kristie and the family.
Rest in peace Frank.
