“ I came to the United States from Ukraine (Soviet Union at the time) because of David. I lived with his family in Roseburg when I first got here. It is thanks to his many efforts that I came to this special country, which became my second home, and for that I will be ever grateful. It is a very sad day for me today to find out that David passed away. He was a great person and I will cherish the memories of his kindness, generosity and a very strong spirit, forever. Rest in peace, David, you will always stay in my memories.
