“ Fred and I served together in Vietnam during the 1968 Tet Offensive. We spent many hours together and bunked in the same hooch until it was destroyed in a mortar attack. Fred love music and loved to sing, which we often did during our jeep patrols. RIP Fred - You will be missed.

“ Fred and I were friends and Military Policemen at Phan Thiet, Republic of Viet Nam. Fred was one of the "good guys" who could be depended on. It was a real pleasure to have him as a member of our surrogate family so far away from home. He is the kind of brother I would pick if I had a choice. Thanks for being there when we needed you.
