

Garry L. Griffith

May 21, 1957 - May 13, 2021

Garry L. Griffith on May 13, 2021 of Collingswood. Age 63. Incredibly loving Super Dad of Jennifer Ridley (Michael) of Rockford, Ill., Lauren Griffith of Philadelphia, Kaitlin Griffith of Mt. Laurel and Jaclyn Griffith of Philadelphia. Son of the late William Griffith and Marie (nee Marsillio). Beloved brother of William Griffith (Teresa) of Secane, PA and the late Joyce Paffett, Michael Griffith and Twin Gail L. Griffith. Treasured Pop Pop to Ryan, Anthony, Madelyn and Delaney. Amazing Uncle to twelve nieces and nephews. Survived by his former spouse and friend, Diane Griffith, and countless colleagues, clients, and friends, especially his dear friend Rachel.

Garry was a Philadelphia sports fanatic. He had a taste for the finer things in life, especially luxury cars. He loved to decorate, and his penchant for interior design could have put even the most famous out of business. He especially loved decorating for Christmas and Christmastime in general. He loved the oldies, the Big Bang Theory, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer. He had an unparalleled work ethic. He took great pride in his job. He loved to cook; he made the best Italian food taught to him by his mother, and he passed that down to his children, as well. He enjoyed going to the casino. He loved animals, and was a proud cat and dog dad to numerous animals throughout his life. All who knew Garry witnessed his sharp wit, great sense of humor, and way of telling it like it was. Although he could be more than a little cheeky, it was part of his charm and it did not eclipse the size of his heart. Above all else, he enjoyed spending time with his daughters and grandchildren. He would move Heaven and Earth to provide for his family.
