“ Pat,
I don't know where to begin. George was such a pleasure to have worked with and such a great friend who was always there when needed. A great man, husband, father, grandfather who seemed to be able to do or fix anything. If there is anything we can do, anything, please do not hesitate to let us know. I will always remember George, his great sense of humor, his loyalty, his love for you and his family and our great daily discussions when we solved all the world's problems. I always knew if something was needed George would be there to do or fix or support our need. He will be greatly missed and his friendship appreciated as a true gift. There are no words that seems appropriate at this time, we are so sorry for your loss and you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

*With all our Love,

“ I could never be able to share all of my wonderful memories I have of my amazing Uncle. Your smile could light up the darkest of rooms. You had the most caring eyes & a heart so big & always full of love. Your sense of humor & laugh were priceless. I will miss most your hugs & your voice. He was our entertainer at family functions always ready to make you laugh & smile even if you feel like you can't. I will never forget you & will ALWAYS hold you deep in my heart & memories. I WILL LOVE YOU ALWAYS! Your niece Cheryl
