“ We are so sad to say goodbye to our friend George. As long as we've known him he was a quiet soul but still waters run deep! George was an excellent carpenter and gardener and his love for all animals was amazing. You would often see him with one of his beloved pets on his lap. And I know for sure that he loved a good homemade pie! He and Peggy raised a wonderful son Eric who we are proud to call our son-in-law. Rest In Peace George until we see you again! Love,Ralph and Rita Stein
