

Georgia J. Casey-Hanlon

March 18, 1948 - June 27, 2013

Georgia J. Casey-Hanlon on June 27, 2013 of Deptford. Age. 65. Wife of the late William Casey. Devoted mother of Jennifer DiMattesa (Gary) of Logan Township. Beloved grandmother of Brady. Daughter of the late Doris A. Gross. Sister of George W. Gross, Jr. (Ginger) of Mantua and the late Doris Ann Costroff and Walter G. Gross. Also survived by six adored brothers and sisters.

Georgia was one of a kind who passed before her time and she will be sadly missed. She has the most beloved extended family and group of friends anyone could ask for.

Relatives and friends are invited to a visitation on Tuesday 12pm to 1pm at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Dr., Deptford.

Memorial service 1pm at the funeral home.

Interment private.

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of our dear, sweet Aunt "Chubby". Definitely taken from us too soon, she was a fixture at every family event. She was the life of every party. She had the unique and rare ability to make everyone, not only laugh to the point of tears, but easily made every person "feel at home"...just like family. From the earliest memory of her "doing the mashed potato" at a party for Jennifer when he was so young to my husband having the opportunity to meet her at my Dad's 60th Birthday to "my sister" Kathryn's last baby shower - she got so excited to win a prize - and EVERYONE knew it! She even would have the funniest conversations with my husband Trip. He loved her as much as me - to the point of stopping in Georgia and taking a picture of him blowing a kiss to the "We're Glad Georgia's On Your Mind" sign at the border. We will forever cherish that picture along with the very fond memories we have of her. Her friendship with my sweet Aunt Kathy is a perfect example of a lifelong bond of two little girls experiencing so many of life's "firsts"...first loves, first kisses, first days of school, firsts of a lifetime of milestones. Jennifer and Brady and everyone she knew have truly lost such a beautiful woman and friend. There was only ONE Aunt Chubby - a woman whose shoes could never be filled. We take comfort in knowing that she is an angel, watching over us all, and sharing a laugh with my dad. Jennifer & Brady we are so sorry for your loss and please know our prayers are with you. She was the BEST mom, grand mom, Aunt, best friend, and so many more titles that anyone could ever ask for. God Bless her and you both. Bernadette & Trip
