“ You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I am sorry for your loss. Gigi and I lived a few houses from each other on 28th Street in Bayonne. We were fortunate that there was a group of group of girls all around the same age on our street who were always doing things outside together-no TVs or video games to keep us inside. Gigi always wrote the most interesting and delightful newsletters which she enclosed with her Christmas cards.

She loved her children and was so happy about all they were accomplishing in their lives.
