“ Dear Gil and family.... So sorry to hear of your dad's passing; Joe met him on many occasions and recalls him as "a real man; always caring," and "old -school-honest and straightforward."
Please be comforted by the fact that your father's spirit knew no bounds and that, as with your family, others, too, were touched by his kind and caring ways. We hope you will rely on the wonderful memories of him and the promise of your Faith to give you solace and strength in the days ahead.

“ I only met Gil a few times when I was visiting his daughter and son-in-law, but he made a lasting impression. He had an infectious joy of life. You could not be in his presence without laughing at his antics. My sincere sympathy to his family who will miss him terribly. May your memories of this wonderful man give you strength.
