

Giles J. Boughter

May 9, 1939 - August 28, 2018

Giles J. Boughter, Age 79, long time resident of Oak Valley died August 28, 2018. The son of the late Giles and Marion Boughter. Born in Woodbury and raised in Billingsport. He was a Paulsboro High School graduate with the class of 1956. Survived by his beloved wife Shirley (nee Assan) of 59 years. Father of Dwayne (Tana) of Wenonah and daughter Debbie Perry (Bob) of West Deptford. Proud pop to Alyssa and Kyle Perry. Brother of Arlene Irwin (Daniel) of CA. Brother-in-law to Julie (Bob) Padulese and the late Edward (Dee) Assan and the late Agnes (Assan) Powell.

Giles was a former employee of New York Shipyard Shipbuilding Corp. serving a four year apprenticeship as a marine machinist. He was a maintenance Department foreman at Georgia Pacific Corporation in Delair, also a marine machinist mechanic and foreman in 38 Shop at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. He retired as a maintenance mechanic at Garlock Bearing in Thorofare in 2003. Giles served in the 114th Armored Infantry Division as a medic in the National Guard. He was a former member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Westville. Giles was also a member of the Cherry Hill Pine Baron Barber Shop Chorus. He loved his dog Suzie, model trains and was a life-long Paulsboro football fan. He was an avid pinochle player and enjoyed wood working and home maintenance for whoever needed him. He was an antique car and truck enthusiast and worked with his son Dwayne restoring a 1952 Ford truck winning many awards and was a former member of the "Retreads".

“ *Aunt Shirley, Dwayne, Debbie and Family,
Thank You! You all have been there for Uncle Giles since his health started to decline. We know this was difficult for you all, but you were all there till the end giving him all your love and support and for that we are most grateful. Now it is the time for healing broken hearts and we share your grief... Our memories of time spent visiting with you all and you visiting with us, especially attending your great nephew and nieces special moments like births, graduations and weddings will forever be in our hearts. Sending our love to you all... Jim, Robin, Doug/Cassie/Ivy, Janet & Ken* “ Shirley, Dwayne, Debbie and Family - I share your loss and can imagine what you all are going through as I am also mourning the loss of my sweet brother. My memories of our childhood together, our families growing up and our visits and vacations together will always be kept close to my heart. Hoping you hold your memories close to your heart also to help you through any sadness and difficult times ahead.

Love you all, Arlene (Giles' Sister)

“ Shirley, Dwayne and Debbie Sue -
Wanted to let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
This part of life is so tough.
I hope you can find comfort in knowing that your Husband/Dad is at peace now - no more suffering. He is your “Special Angel”.
Hang on to your wonderful memories - they will help to get you through these tough days.
Take care and I will keep you in my prayers.
Your old neighbor,
Karen (Keller) Eckert

It is a quiet Sunday in Florida. Time that we sit at the table and talk about memories. Aunt Marion came to mind and memories of childhood were brought up! Wondered about the cousins. The internet provided the information that death had prevailed. My prayers are with all the Boughters. I find myself now as one of the survivors. Rest in Peace, Giles. We will meet again soon. Your cousin, Anna's son - Robert Hunter Hall.
