

Gladys H. Megary

September 1, 1930 - May 17, 2012

GLADYS H. MEGARY, 81, passed away peacefully at her home in Woodstown, NJ on Thursday morning, May 17th, 2012 surrounded by the love of family and dear friends. Gladys was born in Camden, NJ and raised in Wayne Terrace in Collingswood, NJ where she graduated from Collingswood High School. Gladys was a Legal Assistant for many years, and after retirement she enjoyed being Hostess at J.G. Cooks and The Hilltop Restaurants. She faithfully served the Lord as the organist of First Baptist Church in Woodbury for many years. Some of her fondest memories include raising her family in Wenonah, spending time with loved ones in Cape May, and enjoying her retirement in her Woodstown home next to her special friends at Cream Valley Custard. She was predeceased by the love of her life and husband of 36 years, Thomas W. Megary, as well as her three beloved children Diane Schwenker, David P. Schwenker and Douglas Clark Schwenker . Gladys will be forever remembered by her three grandsons Douglas Schwenker, Stephen Griffin, and Christian Griffin, son-in-law Gary Griffin and wife Stefanie, step-daughter Patricia Lynch and husband Jerry, step-daughter Susan McGlenn and husband Michael, loving companion of Gladys' late son Doug, Mary Kasperowicz, step-grandchildren Caitlin, Ted, Jason, Robert, Ian, and Rebecca, dearest friend Blanche Souder as well as many other family and friends whom Gladys treasured and together shared beautiful and meaningful connections. There will be a celebratory service of her life at First Baptist Church, 544 N. Broad Street, Woodbury, NJ on Saturday, June 2, 2012 at 10am. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to an organization that was close to her heart, the Child Evangelism Fellowship of Gloucester County (PO Box 285, Pitman NJ 08071). Gladys leaves her mark on this world, for the faith and courage she demonstrated, the many smiles she created, and the countless lives she touched.
