

Harry J. Bramble

September 2, 1938 - January 6, 2018

Harry J. Bramble on January 6, 2018 of Mantua, formerly of the Oak Valley section of Deptford. Age 79. Loving husband of Eileen G. (nee Grundlock). Beloved father of Ronald Bramble (Karin) of Galloway and Kelly Glaze (William "Bill") of Woolwich. Brother of Mary Dougherty of Williamstown, William Bramble (Cheryl) of Newfield and the late Robert Bramble. Devoted grandfather of Montanna, Billy, Lisa, Ronnie, Alexandra and Nicholas. Great-grandfather of Hannah, Karly and Chase. Special nephews and niece, Bruce, Scott and Barbara Ann. Also survived by former daughter-in-law Regina Bramble.

Harry earned a BA degree at Rowan/Glassboro State College. He taught trades at Deptford Township High School for eighteen years, where he coached JV baseball and was also a baseball coach in Oak Valley. He then became a teacher of the handicap for the State of NJ where he retired in October 2000. Harry had a passion for playing guitar and played in the band the ARJays for twenty years. He loved his wife with all that he had. His laughter and kindness touched all.

“ Daddy, your bride is with you now so I know you are finally resting in peace. I promised you I would take care of mom until it was time to be with you. I hope I did you proud. Fly high my two angels, continue your love story, you are together where you belong. I love you both so very much it hurts.

Until I see you again, with all my heart and soul — Kelly

“ My grandfather was the best person you would ever meet. Kind hearted, caring, and most especially, a great musician. I hope he is playing his favorite guitars, watching over everyone he loved.

I met your grandfather working in the community. He was a very kind man. We talked at length one time about family heritage as my last name was bramble.

The next time he saw me he brought me papers about our family heritage and history. He was so excited to give them to me.

I just found his grave walking in the cemetery by my house. And was prompted to look him up.

Please send my love to your family.

“ Harry was our co worker at Cumberland Day Program in Bridgeton NJ. He was a special guy, funny, bright, team player but above all a great friend. May he be strumming his guitar in Heaven and may the good Lord bestow peace in the hearts of those that loved and adored him. RIP Harry.

“ Both Joan and I are saddened by the news of Harry's passing. He was an exemplary human being: always gracious; always helpful. We worked together at Deptford High for many years and of all the faculty at the high school, Harry is one of the few people whose presence was always welcome. We know that Harry loved being a father; his joy in being a grandfather and great grandfather must have been immense. Our thoughts are with you.

“ Eileen and family

I am so very sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers go out to you all.

Harry always had a kind word and an encouraging word. He always smiled and joked, and instantly made everyone feel comfortable and welcome. He would discuss music and in the next breath the psychology of Carl Jung. I was always amazed. There are not enough words to describe the good man that he was. Thank you Harry for the privilege of having known you.

“ We knew Harry and his wife, Eileen, since we moved into Spring Valley in 2010. He was one of the finest people we've ever met: always pleasant, always kind; always the gentleman. Whenever we were walking our dog on a summer's evening, and Harry and Eileen were sitting on their porch, they would greet us with a wave. He always had a smile to give away to someone. Although we are saddened for Eileen, we are grateful to God for allowing us to live on the same street with someone as complete a human as one can be as was Harry. His works in this life have assuredly earned for him a place of honor in the next. God bless you, Harry

“ HE IS JUST AWAY

He is not gone, he is just away, a temporary thing, he is in a place of Love and care, where chorus' of Angels sing. You've shared his joy, his Love, his pain, you've put his mind at ease, by standing near, and giving strength, your only thought to please.

But now he rests, all pain is gone, no more worldly strife, he is not gone, he is now with God and we Celebrate his life. jhs R.I.P. Good friend.

May all of the fond memories sustain you in this time of loss. Jay and Dee Sharp

“ Kelly, I know how much everyone loved your dad which doesn't make it any easier to lose someone you cherish as much as you do your Dad. Know tho that everyone's love for him will guide you thru this difficult time and time will eventually make things less painfull. His loving memory will never fade just become a distant sorrow. The news was shocking to me so I know it had to knock you to your knees. I'm thinking about you, Ronnie and your Mom and sending you support to guide you thru these difficult days ahead. Xoxo
