“ Dear Sis, I am so sorry to hear of Harry's death. I wish I knew before today and I would have come to the funeral home. I just saw the video and it was so touching. It brought tears to my eyes. The last picture where Harry waved good-bye, I lost it. I will keep him in my prayers. Love Lorraine and Sonny.

“ To share all my memories of my brother would take a series of books like Harry Potter. It would be Harry Kirby and the Falling Medicine Cabinet; Harry Kirby and Notre Dame Academy; Harry Kirby and the Rock to the Head; Harry Kirby and the Slippery Rock (subtitle Harry Falls in Narragansett Bay); Harry Kirby and The Red Headed Monster.....and so on. He was my first little brother, my first playmate, friend, confidante, wingman, adviser. I will miss him forever.

“ Sis, all the memories we have of Harry in our teens are cherished. His carefree nature and he was always willing to give a hand if necessary. Harry and Sissy were my teens and adult friends and you could not have had better friends.

“ Harry, ma and the kids love you so much. You have helped make all our lives better many times. Whether it was helping one of the boys with a school project, rebuilding the lawn mower with Thomas like ten times, or spoiling the girls. Nana wont be calling on the phone but she can look up at the sky and talk to you wherever she is. You were such a good friend to me even making me eat chicken soup. You will be missed. My heart breaks that your time with us wasn't so much longer. We love you too Sissy and will be here for anything you need. Please except my deepest feelings for your loss. I love you both so much.

“ My Uncle Harry was truly a good person at heart. If anyone had a problem or needed someone to talk to, he was there. I've had so many good memories with him and my aunt it's hard to count. Every Christmas Eve since I was born, they would come over my house and spend it with us. Christmas Eve mostly consisted of eating my mom's home made Escarole soup, watching the Christmas Story movie, and laughing while my little sister talked for hours about every subject possible. I'll never forget all the times, we spent together. I'm really going to miss my Uncle. I love you Uncle Har.

“ From the moment Harry and Sis became my son's God Parents I knew I made the right choice. There was no one else I would ever trust like I trusted them. I will never forget all of our great late night card games (some probably should be forgotten.) Harry always made all of us laugh. One day, not all that long ago, Harry came over and brought me a huge bag of homemade italian sausage. That day he took me for a ride in his beloved restored Camaro with the top down. Boy was he in his glory. I will be forever grateful for his friendship, love and all of great memories. Like many, I will miss him every day of my life. .

“ So sorry to hear about Harry. I remember stories about his Mom having to call school to see what homework he had to do. Of course, Harry always said he didn't have any. He was such a funny kid and always had such a dry sense of humor. He will be missed.
