“ To my Baby Brother Harry David. You came into my life as my present on my 10th birthday. I should have known then how special you would be to me and this world. May you continue to enjoy your passion for dancing, singing and just being your crazy self in your new world. Just know that a rainbow is out there full of all the smiles that you gave to everyone. So Thank You for being my Birthday gift and my Baby Brother!!! I will never stop Missing or Loving you!! In My Heart Forever, Kitt

Kitty DeLucas - January 27, 2013 at 07:23 PM

“ *Harry,
I remember you are a little boy in Woodbury, always hanging out at the Dunkin Donuts store that my Ex-husband and I owned. Eventually and when you were old enough we hired you as a porter and you were the best ever! As years passed, you later helped my dad with his apartment and became his friend until he passed. You were a friend to many and had a heart of gold...RIP Harry... you are missed...*

Kyle O'Hara-Joseph - January 25, 2013 at 02:55 PM

“ To all of Harry's family and friends, I am so very sorry to hear of Harry David's passing. He was a fine man with a big heart. Over the years when we would run into one another, he would often leave me with a kind word. Harry and all of your family are in my prayers. My deepest sympathy go out to all of Harry's family and friends...Aggie

“ I met Harry when I was 18yrs old, he was a regular customer of mine at Dunkin Donuts , then a few yrs later he and my mother (Linda) met and have been best of friends ever since. He was one of the funniest guys we have ever met. Listening to him tell a story could keep you laughing for days. He will truly be missed by all. We will always love him and will always be grateful to have know him. Love you Har Babes....

“ There's a special place in my which I will keep for you. Where I will store all the memories of the things we used to do. When I feel sad,I will sit for awhile and the things I remember will make me smile. You are not forgotten. You will always be in a special place in my heart. Now you are at rest. And I know it's for the best. So rest in peace my friend. Until we meet again.
