Harry M. Thompson, a beloved son, uncle, and friend, passed away peacefully on February 12, 2025, in Mullica Hill, New Jersey, at the age of 65. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him and never forgotten.

Harry was the cherished son of the late Harry Thompson and Theresa Fisicaro (nee Morrison) (Joseph), predeceased by his 3 sisters Theresa, Deanna, and Jennifer. He was a loving and devoted uncle, and a cherished lifelong friend to Tim and Anita O'Shea and their seven beautiful children.

This early commitment to service reflected the unwavering loyalty and kindness that defined his life. He leaves behind a legacy of kindness and generosity, most notably demonstrated through his unwavering support of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, a cause close to his heart. His big heart and willingness to help others, especially children, will always be remembered.

Harry's passion for his Philadelphia sports teams – the Eagles, Flyers, and Phillies – was legendary. He was especially proud of attending the Super Bowl in Florida in 2004 with Tim, where they witnessed the Eagles' first matchup against the Patriots. “ Harry you were always the special part of our O’Shea family, I’ve known you my entire life and thinking that you won’t be here anymore hurts my heart. Growing up I remember always calling you harry but pronouncing it as hairy you’d laugh at me and say “it’s harry, not hairy”. It doesn’t sound as funny typing it as it does in my head but it’s like I can hear your voice when you say it. I’m gonna miss you so much but I know you’re finally at rest and with your family. I love you forever har and I hope your always watching from above 💕 till we meet again ☐

“ I have so many great memories of Harry, from sitting in his room as a 10 year old - what a special treat that was - to being able to hang with him as an adult! He also had time to talk and to listen. When he raised his eyebrow and laughed, I never knew if he mad or just playing. I will truly miss him and his “I know”. Rest easy cousin!

“ Harry was always so protective of me growing up in Parkwood. He made sure I was always safe and not with the wrong crowd. He was truly like my big brother always so strong.

As he grew older life was not easy for him, however he was always there to talk on the phone for hours. I loved our conversations, they always went in so many directions. God how I will miss Harry, he loved with his whole heart and at the end of every call he would say “I love you Rae” and those words will forever be in my heart & my memory!!! I love you Harry with all my heart.
