

Helen S. Corsey

February 22, 1923 - August 19, 2015

Helen S. Corsey, of Deptford, departed this earth and ascended into heaven on August 19, 2015. She was born February 22, 1923 to the parents of Charles and Anna Stewart in Millsboro, DE. She received her early childhood education in Delaware and continued her education at an institution which is now known as Delaware State University. She met her late husband, Sgt. Wallace Corsey, Sr. during her pursuit of her educational goals. They later married and continued their union for over 70 years. She was a loving mother of Brenda Parker (Wayne) of Blackwood, Bernadette Graham (Frank) "Bucky" of CA, Wallace Corsey, Jr. (Janis) of Glassboro, William Lee Corsey of CA, Warren Corsey (Donna) of Deptford and William Corsey (Little Billy) of Deptford. Also survived by a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter.

Helen was a devout Christian. She was a former den mother for the cub scouts, community leader, church volunteer and always willing to help family, friends and neighbors in need, as well as sacrificing much for her children. Her passion for working and helping others led to her career choices as a lab technician and a nursing assistant.

“ I will always remember Mom-Mom Corsey, as a beautifully regal woman who was always impeccably dressed and gorgeously made up. A truly lovely woman, inside and out!! Rest in Love! Aunt Brenda and family, my love surrounds you, always! Love, Kim

Kim Cuttino - August 22, 2015 at 08:27 PM

“ My sincere condolences to you and your family Bernadette. My God be with you.

Cheryl Hunt - August 21, 2015 at 08:54 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. In the bible we find hope and comfort. Jesus said in John 5:28 "the hour is coming in which all those in the graves will hear my voice and come out."

Doris Kruger - August 21, 2015 at 12:08 PM

“ May you find comfort and peace as you remember the loveliness of her life. My deepest sympathies to the family. Jacqueline Taylor Ilene and Jasmine Moore
