“ Terry, Melissa and Family, so sorry that you lost your mother, especially during the holidays. She was like another mother to me growing up (especially when we got into trouble 😳😭) she will always be loved and missed by all who were blessed to know her! My condolences and prayers are with you all.

“ I remember when I was younger and she was dating my brother dennis. I use to run back and forth between my other brother Jessie's and her place because they lived across from each other on Wright Street. She was always so nice and sweet to me. Sure will miss her.
