“ Ian would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. He was such a kind, caring, loving and funny soul. No matter what was going on he could make you laugh! He didn't care what it took to make you laugh he would do it! Ian had sooo much to give this world and just his presence alone made a difference. I never seen a person more excited and passionate then him to help take care of adults with special needs. That was Ian. There were so many layers to him and talents he shared! Ian should have been a rockstar he sure had the talent!! I hope when people think of him they think of all his good! I met Ian for the first time right before I turned 16.. I'll never forget him jumping over the back fence in all black.. I remember telling him you could have came through the front door but he was scared of my dad 🙈♀️🙈 my dad and the rest of my family loved Ian.. it's really hard not too! He is and will forever will be the best friend my Denn has ever had❤️ The two of them went together like peanut butter and jelly! I'm so glad we came together again.. life happens but he would always find his way back to us! He would say I'm back with my family.. that is the truest statement❤️ I'm so glad as adults we weren't afraid or to shy to say I love you to one another and we did at the end of every night! Ian was a natural with kids. He took the time to learn the multiple personalities that all 3 of my little girls have lol my Vaida he nicknamed Beta fish 🐟 funny story! He was such a big help anytime we went out and did stuff with the kids! He was always watching and making sure they were safe! So many memories I will cherish for the rest of my life! Going to Marlboro with him and Denn..high speed chase in his mom's maxima over an orange soda.. Countless bonfires with good conversations.. going to Lamb of God concert at the electric factory with my Denn Ian and Jess.. watching the shooting stars on Joe and Janets balcony in Pitman with Denn and Ian.. taking the kids to the beach to watch the sunset.. the rodeo for 4th of July so we could see some fireworks.. going to the grocery store so he could help cook dinner..Ian making strawberry pancakes for my daughter Jade.. Ian and Britt having a full on nerf war for almost a month straight...winging it in the woods for a weekend and having a blast.. all the kids setting him up and attacking him with nerf guns..

*watching UFC together and so much more! Ian had so much more to give this world and those in it 😔 Ian wanted peace love and happiness for everyone!! In Ian's memory we should all try to love one another despite our differences, that is what he would of wanted! I remember telling Ian it's always darkest before the dawn.. the sun would shine on him again. The sun will shine again. One month after his passing I seen the most beautiful rainbow 🌈 in the sky. I know that was a sign from Ian letting me know he is ok ❤️ My thoughts and prayers are with his family.. I know it doesn't get easier because it is only that much longer since you seen his face And held him in your arms 😔 Keep him alive through thoughts and memories. Something as little as that song that comes on the radio and it makes you think of him! Turn it up loud and jam out and know that he is jammin out with you!! Appreciate the small things because in the end we realize those were the big things ❤️❤️ Forever in our hearts.. I love you Ian! Until we meet again friend.. Love always,
Brooke*

“ To the McCann family,
I had the pleasure of meeting Ian through my daughter Amanda Morales he was always respectful and made me laugh. I do have a lot of good memories with him he spent a lot of time at our home. I can remember the first time I heard him play the drums, I was so blown away he had this amazing talent. Silly and funny I remember him dressing like my daughter and her dressing like him just two young kids having a good time. Going to Marlborough going 4-wheeling. And then there was the way he dressed him and his best bud Dennis would wear these flight jackets Tac pants tucked into black boots to this day I can never see anyone wearing that and not think of Ian. My heart breaks for your whole family and all the people who had the pleasure of knowing him. I am so grateful to have got to spend time with him recently. Let the wonderful memories you have of your Ian find you some sense of peace. God bless

“ Oh man Ian... There are so many memories with you. You and my brother were always side by side. Going to Marlboro was for sure some of the best times. Hearing you jam out playing the drums another favorite. You were so talented. Your time ended way to soon. You will always be missed and definitely never forgotten. Rest easy and I hope you have the meanest drum sat up there. Prayers to Mom and Pop McCann. Much Love Theresa

“ I coached Ian when he played football with my son in Westville they played for the Westville Eagles. He had a big heart when it came to the game. We played in the unlimited weight class and as you know Ian weight maybe 85 pounds wet going up against kids who weighed 180 pounds and up and he was never afraid to go up against another player no matter how big he was. I remember a game where there was a kid on the team we were playing and he was really dominating no one seemed to be able to stop him and Ian said to me put me in coach I will handle him so I gave Ian a chance and put him in I remember the kid probably weighed 220 pounds and Ian lined up against him and looked half his size but with Ian's a big heart and no fear to our surprise handled the kid the whole game and actually helped us to win the game and at the end of the game Ian walked up to me and said I told you I could do it coach and a high fived him and said yes you did Ian. My wife and I send our condolences to you and you family Paul. Sincerely Joe Sharp.
