“ I have known Inge since I was 18 years old, although I have not been in contact for quite some time. I am saddened by her passing. When I think of Inge, I always smile. She was ahead of her time, sometimes quirky, sometimes hauntingly honest, but always a woman who had a heart filled with love. My memories of Inge are special and are ties to many other memories. She will be missed in this life, but will be waiting in the next life to let us all know her thoughts.

Bill and Sue, You will be in thoughts and prayers. I know you will miss her.

“ There is so much I could say about my mom. She was the warmest giving person that I have ever met. She would do anything for you and never ask for anything in return. I can't count the number of times she helped me. With all the ailments she had, She NEVER complained. I know I never said it enough to her, But I love you now and till the end of time. I know you will be waiting for me at the gates of heaven when my time comes, so until then.
