“ Aunt Irene, It is hard knowing that when I come to jersey you won't be there. We will never go to KFC anymore with you, the dollars stores or going to get ur rub offs. It will be the little things that I will remember, the quite moments, the smiles, the laughter that we shared. Ok and the drinking too. Going to louise's house and seeing everybody and having a great time. Although this is hard for me right now, and its breaking my heart, knowing that I can't see you anymore. It will be the memories of these little things that will help to push away the pain and bring a smile back again. I am so happy that I shared my life with you. Thank you an my love for you will always be in my heart.

“ Aunt Irene:

Although you left us and moved to New Jersey quite some time ago, TIME CAN NEVER ERASE the fun times and memories I have of you all the years you lived in Baltimore. While growing up, I remember how much I enjoyed visiting you on Patterson Park Ave, especially when there were parades - we had the perfect viewing spot! In later years, you moved to the apartments behind Mom's house and I enjoyed spending time with you more often. You always had a heart of gold.

I still can't believe you worked at the laundrymat for as long as you did - Ruth, Kathy and I have talked about it quite often over the years. No doubt that the patrons looked forward to seeing you there. I can tell by the other guest messages that you were also very much loved by family & friends in New Jersey and will be missed greatly. My sympathy goes out to all of those you were closest to. I know you have left them with very fond and fun and sometimes humorous memories.

PS: Keep partying and tell Mom I said Hi!

Love To You Always, Alice

“ Aunt Irene, "I'm fine" was always your response. When ever you were asked how you were or how you feeling your reply would be "I'm fine". Well I want you to know that you are missed dearly. Whenever someone says they're fine, you will be thought of. I know that I will be fine to, as I find comfort in my memories of you. Thank you for being such a wonderful, loving person. We love you.
