“ *So sorry to all of you for the loss of both Uncle Ray & Aunt Irma so soon. You all were your mother's heart in New Jersey but we missed her at "home" in Canada. We are far apart but all together in our thoughts and prayers for your parents, you and your children.

“ Irma was one of my first friends when I moved to Knightsbridge. Always laughing. We kind of lost touch when she moved to Delsea Drive. She stopped with her Pom long ago. I had just gotten my Pom. R.I.P. Erma . ???

“ Our heartfelt sympathy to you, Aunt Irma's family. She never forgot her love of Bathurst, her Acadian heritage and her Canadian family and friends. The picture you shared says it all. Her children were her greatest joy and you were always so good to her. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Love your cousin Sue & Glen
