“ To the Leo and Leone families. I graduated with Jack. Although I have not seen him in years, I knew Jack and your families for years. I lived on Boyd Street in Camden and Jack leo and his cousin Joanne Leone lived on the next street (Carmen St.) I am one of the children in one of the first pictures in the video. I remember Jack and your families with much love. My deepest symphathy. God Bless you all. Love, Mary Ann

“ My condolences to your family at this time of sadness. I worked with Jack at Cherry Valley Tractor for about 16 years. He truly loved hunting and fishing. I have fond memories of many company fishing trips with Jack. He will be missed.

“ Big Jack aka (Johnny Rigatoni), The world will be a little duller and quieter without ya. A lifetime of woods, water and turning wrenches for you has ended too early. For you now it's time to go on to a better place on both of your own feet. Stand tall Cuz'. Enjoy your new adventure, and don't forget to leave some for me, dammit. See ya down the woods, Big Mike

“ I knew Jack before I knew anyone in the family because he was my neighbor and we grew up in New Sharon together. When I married his cousin, Mike, he made it a point to always come to our home on Christmas with gifts for us and the children. He was always there if you needed him. He was a great relative and a friend to me. I'll miss you, Jack
