*I just can't believe this is it and we will never see you again !!!
We are sitting here with our broken hearts and I can't help reminiscing on how many times you rescued us... When the snow falls you are there With the cancer we faced you were there... When our beloved Omega Red passed, you were there ... And we feel like we could never repay all of your kindness ... My Lemon 🍋 Pie sits across from me with eyes glassy and lip quivering over the loss of you.. Our dear dear friend ... My sister Ellen Fertsch a English/Literature Teacher formly at Woodbury High School and I shared a love for this book "To Kill A Mokingbird" ... It's Champion was Boo Radley who watched over his neighbors, leaving them trinkets in a tree and ultimately saving their lives !!! With never taking anything in return You just would not ..
You Jack are our Boo Radley !!!*

And Thank You !!!

A passage from "To Kill A Mockingbird "

*Neighbors bring food with death and flowers with sickness and little things in between. Boo was our neighbor. He gave us two soap dolls, a broken watch and chain, a pair of good-luck pennies... And Our Lives...
But neighbors give in return. We never put back into the tree what we took out of it: we had given him nothing, and it made me sad. — with

“ Hey Jack, It is not until now that I found out you left us. I remember you were quite a talented Drummer, and a helluva nice guy! Around 1970 I got my first drum set and needed a ride cymbal. One day you came over with a 20 inch Zildian ride cymbal. That night you were chomping at the bit, and so excited about a concert you wanted to go to that night, but you did not have any money. You sold me the cymbal for $ 25.00 although it was worth about $150.00. I loved that cymbal and used it for Many years! and you were so happy you got to go to your concert. I can see you had a wonderful life, and I was blessed to meet you! Groove in Peace, My friend.....Walt Kingston “Jeanne, Melissa and Jack- there are simply no words to express how sorry I am. Jack was an amazing man. Your loss is immeasurable. It didn't take long for anyone to see how much pride he took in his family. It was quite obvious how he adored each and every one of you. Tom and I loved him dearly...everyone who met him did. He was a one-of-a kind man as you know, and he was so good to Tom and me. I don't know what we would have done without him over the years. There wasn't a single time that we needed help with anything that he wasn't right there for us; be it a car repair, a broken appliance, a pipe leak, or just some good old fashion advice. I will miss coming home from work and see him sitting outside in the front yard. I will miss all his beautiful peppers and tomatoes. I will miss our wonderful conversations and I will cherish the big pink blossom bush he gave to us (even though I can't recall its name). Jack was all things “good” in this world, and a huge part of our world on Cornell Avenue has been forever changed.

We love you guys and are here if you need anything. You are in my thoughts and prayers today, and in the days to come.

*Love,
Karen & Tom Mitchell*

“ I didn't know Mr. Marston personally, but have no doubt he was an amazing guy. It takes a wonderful person to raise such great kids, especially his son Jack, who is one of the nicest, and hardest working people I know. Family is extremely important to the Marstons, and I know that they will keep his memory alive, and his kids will continue to make him proud. Jack, Melissa, and Mrs. Marston, my heartfelt condolences.
