

Jacqueline J. Grande

June 2, 1930 - June 12, 2018

Jacqueline Jean Grande (nee Twesten), June 2, 1930 – June 12, 2018. Wife of the late Michael Grande, daughter of the late Winifred and Charles Twesten, loving Mother of Michelle Grande Mulligan, Joseph Mulligan (husband), Scott Michael Grande, Paul Stewart Grande, step granddaughter Lily Mulligan, her cat Sophie, and grand dogs Bryn and Rhys.

Written by Jacqueline: Jacqueline J. Grande (Twesten) slipped away on June 12, 2018, to dance among the heavenly bodies to all the beautiful music she always loved. She enjoyed watching and feeding all the birds, squirrels and other animals who came to eat and live in her yard, and the pretty flowers her son Paul planted. She leaves behind three children Michelle, Scott and Paul who she loved and had so many beautiful memories.

Originally from Philadelphia, Jacqueline moved to Deptford NJ when she married. After raising her children, she worked for Verizon as a directory assistance operator in Woodbury NJ. She was a lover of animals and took in many dogs and cats who were in need of a home. She also loved music, musicals, art, traveling and Johnny Depp. She was a Girl Scout Leader, an artist, and had the gift of making every birthday party, Christmas morning and Easter morning a special event. She was supportive of her children in every way. Sensitive and intuitive with a great sense of humor, she will be missed by all who loved her.
