“ Jim was like a Big Teddie Bear! He was always there to try and solve any problems or concerns I may have had in a Big Brother kind of way. I loved his helpfulness!

Jim gave me quite of bit of advice through the years but what stands out for me at the moment , was his advice on gardening. He had such a love for gardening and shared with me many great ideas that I will keep alive going forward. We all loved his Jersey tomatoes! And I for one loved his white eggplant! Some day I will grow white eggplant in my garden in memory of Jim.

I will really miss our Sunday morning phone calls! And much more..... God Bless you Big Brother!💕💕

“ Jim was the consummate engineer, adept & always thorough in his analysis of the project at hand. We would at times ask his advice on certain procedures or projects, however not always doing it his way, preferring expediency & then regret not following his advice. Jim was a "gentle" Giant & a true family man. His feelings ran deep. He will be missed by all.

“ Jim was a co-worker for many years on the Philadelphia Naval Base (NAVFAC). We shared many a conversation. He was a very good story teller. We enjoyed each others company at several NAVFAC happy hours. He was a great guy and his family will miss his kindness.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Jim from WW. No matter how he was feeling, he always had a smile, a compliment, a kind word, or encouragement for whoever he came in contact with. He was such a nice man, he will be missed in many different circles, seems like he touched many lives. May you find comfort from friends, family and fond memories.

Rest in peace my friend.

Jim and I first met when we both worked at the Big G supermarket in 1969. I remember the wonderful pool parties and volleyball games at his parents' house. We both went to and graduated from WPI and began our careers. Although Diane ultimately "took" him back to New Jersey, he would visit Connecticut and his family often and we would usually get together. Jim was a good person and a good friend to me. And to Diane, Julie, Bill, Joe, John, Cathy, and Bob; remember that Jim was a great husband, father, and sibling. He will be missed! And to Jim - goodbye my friend; until we meet again.
