

James W. Cesaro, Jr.

August 24, 1932 - June 7, 2019

James W. Cesaro, 86, affectionately known as JW Ryder, of Mickleton, died June 7, 2019. He was preceded in death by his loving wife Carol A. Cesaro, his parents, James and Eleanor, two brothers, John and William and by granddaughter Baby Girl Cesaro.

James was born and raised in Philadelphia and proudly served in the United States Army during the Korean War. Upon his honorable discharge he worked for El DuPont until his retirement in 1985. James and Carol traveled the world until her passing in 2005. Thereafter, James continued his travels with his family and enjoyed life to the fullest. He knew everything and could fix anything and always shared his opinion especially if you were wrong.

He is survived by his three devoted children, Christine A. (Brian) Mullis, James W. (Michelle) Cesaro III and Michael D. Cesaro. He also is survived by his two granddaughters Jamie Cesaro and Erin Mullis; four nieces and one nephew.

The family expresses its heartfelt appreciation for the excellent care and attention provided to James during these last four years.

No services are planned per JW's wishes and they will be honored.

The family asks that memorial donations be made to Fox Chase Cancer Center, 333 Cottman Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19111.

Arrangements by BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, Deptford, NJ.
