“ Dear James,
It will always feel like you're with us, because you always are and always will be. Everywhere we went you were there and that will never change. Always there to make us laugh, make us cry and make us happy. You were a true friend, a true brother, and always stayed true to yourself. You always loved being around people and that's what you did best. Being a nurse was the perfect occupation for you and you were even better at your hobby, being a loyal friend. You'll always be our boy, our brother and our best friend.
We love you with all our heart.

“ To the family that loved, encouraged, guided and treasured this precious soul, my deepest sympathy to you. Our whole ER team is deeply pained by the loss of not only our colleague, but more importantly, our friend. If only tears could build a bring to Heaven, we would bring him home again. He truly was one of the smartest and caring nurses that I have met (and hungry :)). His smile, stories and sense of humor , always kept us laughing. May all your memories and stories help get you this the sorrowful times.
