“ Lisa. We can never express to you the sadness we feel for you and the kids. Jimmy and you grew up together. That makes it even more difficult. He was a good guy with a quick wit. He will be missed. Call me if you need to talk. Love you. Aunt Donna and Kevin

“ *Dear MacKenzie Family,
I was deeply saddened to hear of Jim's passing. I was fortunate to have had the pleasure of working with Jim on almost a daily basis during my time at Wawa. He was very good at what he did, but that is not what I remember about him. I remember his genuineness, his caring, his humor, although sometimes it was hard to classify his jokes as humor ;), and his constant eagerness to help, not because it was his job but because he enjoyed helping others. It is tough for me to describe Jim in words other than to say, he was a GREAT GUY and will be missed by many.
My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I hope that you can find some solace in all of the happy memories and good times that Jim brought to so many people.

“ My prayers go out to you and your family. I met Jim when he first started working at Wawa as a consultant. We instantly became friends because we had common interests. He was a amazing and brilliant person with the ability to solve and fix any problem. There wasn't anything that he didn't know about. Jim and I would swap our hobby stories during lunch all the time. I am going to miss him greatly.

“ My deepest sympathies on your loss. I was deeply saddened to learn of Jim's passing. Jim worked to provide IT solutions for several areas in my department. During that time I got to know Jim a bit on a personal level. He was a wonderful person that I always looked forward to working with. He had a positive impact on those he worked with and will be sorely missed here at Wawa by many.

“ I miss you more then I thought I would And I cried much more then I thought I could Time heals all At least that's what they say But loves the pice And so I pay
Sometimes I smile because I know your near It's not enough You are not here
The years will roll by And I won't be the same Yet in my heart You'll still remain
You left love behind when you flew away And a piece of me left with you On that day

“ Lisa, My sympathies to you and your family. Jim and I were on the data warehousing team at Wawa for many years. He was very reserved and private but working side by side for so long you get to know someone fairly well. Conversations usually veered into our enjoyment of tool collecting, house maintenance and how the clock was progressing. Many many times he mentioned how lucky and proud he was to have in his words - "a wife who's a saint" and "a wonderful family". He was very considerate and helpful to me when my sister passed away and I will always be eternally grateful! I will miss him!

“ Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you; whatever we were to each other, that, we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used, put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we shared together.

Let my name ever be the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was.

There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. ---Henry Scott Holland
