

James A. Martucci

September 18, 1935 - May 20, 2013

James A. Martucci "Big Jim" on May 20, 2013 of Deptford NJ. Age 77. Son of the late Joseph & Jennie (Bertino) Martucci. Beloved husband of Patsy A. (nee Advena). Loving father of ChaCha "Wanda" Givens (Richard) of Hainesport, James Martucci Jr. of Deptford, James Appello Jr. of Colonial Beach, VA, Mark A. Martucci (Cathy) of Philadelphia, Jennie Ann Narcisi (Henry) of Mullica Hill and Trishi Snyder (Brent) of Swedesboro. Brother of Mary Cataldi of Philadelphia. Predeceased by his brother JoJo Alfieri and his sister Rosie Procopio. Survived by his nieces & nephews. Proud & loving PopPop of Billy, Nathan, Ava, Henry and Sebastian.

Big Jim was a carpenter and the owner of J&M Woodworking of Deptford. He was the owner/coach for J&M Woodworking softball team for many years. He enjoyed working on his home projects and helping others with theirs. On Sundays you would find him watching his beloved Eagles. He also enjoyed spending time with his family especially his grand babies.

Relatives and friends are invited to a viewing Thursday 6:30-9pm and Friday 9-10am at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Dr., Deptford.

Funeral Service Friday 10am at the funeral home.

Interment Oak Grove Cemetery, Hammonton NJ.

Tribute Wall

“ James A. Martucci

November 27, 2022 at 03:45 PM

“ Trish and Jennie Ann - I am so sorry to here of your dads passing. I just was on the website for another viewing and came across it. I am so sorry. He was such a funny guy when we were growing up. I will be thinking of you both.

tracy spencer - May 29, 2013 at 11:54 AM

RS

“ Dear Aunt Patsy,
I am so sad about Uncle Jim's passing.
As much as it hurt's to know how you are grieving,
Thinking of your love for him...Cha Cha, Big Jimmy, Little Jimmy,
Jenny, and Trishy's love for him,
And all of the Family's love for him is a great reminder of what his impact has been on many.
Your love for each other has always been a strong influence on my life and will continue to be. All that you and Uncle Jim have done for me, my Mom, Michael, Chris and Lauren has shaped us into the people we are. We are forever grateful for your love and influence.
I am so sorry I am not there. Please know that my love for Uncle
Jim and for the family is strong.
I have been torn about not being there but have comfort in Uncle
Jim knowing where my heart is.
Distance may separate me from you physically, but there is nothing that will every separate my love for Uncle Jim, You and the Martucci family emotionally.
Tears have flowed and are now.
Great memories continue to to be relived.
The great gift of life we have shared together inspires what I do and how I continue to fight on in life is forever strong.
We never say it enough,
I Love Uncle Jim!
I Love you!
I hope and pray God comforts you and you feel my love during this time and all of your tomorrows.
All my love,
Robert

Robert Stamm - May 24, 2013 at 06:19 AM

SP

“ I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Martucci's passing...Our families go way back and there were good times that we had. I remember there was always loud conversations between My Dad and Mr Martucci....I think they wanted to see who was the loudest! My heart goes out to all of you....remember all the good times and if you ever need him, just call his name and he will be there for you.

Sue Pardo-Shoup - May 23, 2013 at 10:03 PM

RM

“ Dear Martucci Family, There are no words anyone can say that will be of comfort to any of you other then Jim is up in Heaven with Sandra raising all kinds of trouble. The two of them had such a special bond that nobody could ever break. I can still hear him come into the shop or over our house saying to mom "hey cuz" get the h*ll up off the sofa and make some meatballs, the Eagles are coming on soon. I have never met such a warm, kind, and loving man to everyone, especially his family. Jim, I will miss you asking me for something to drink...I said what would you like and you always said you don't give a "crap" as long as it's wet. I cleaned that up for the guest book. My sincere condolences to all of you. Jim was the kind of man who would give the shirt off his back to help someone. You will be missed very much. I Love You & the other side of my heart is now broken too. I know we will see each other again in a better place in time. Until then, rest in peace and you will always hold a special place in my heart. xoxoxox

~

*Renee De Matteo-Franks,
Williamstown, New Jersey
Contact Me*

Renee De Matteo-Franks - May 23, 2013 at 08:37 PM

CS

“ Thinking of you Aunt Patsy and your whole family.

Christian, Jeanette, Erica & CJ Stamm - May 23, 2013 at 06:48 PM

MF

“ Your battle is now over, no more tears flowing down your cheek, no more pain, no more suffering, now you are no longer weak. I still do not understand why this had to happen to you, but I am proud to say you are my dad, Although you will not be here to watch me walk my daughters down the isle. when that day comes I know you will be by my side with a smile. You never once made me cry, until the day you closed your eyes and I had to say goodbye. Now you are my Angel, so spread your wings out wide, please wrap them around me whenever you see me cry. Our time together was short but memorable and God took you way too fast, I love you Dad, till we meet again Big Guy...Mark

Mark Martucci and family - May 23, 2013 at 06:41 PM

DB

“ To my dearest friend Jennie , Uncle Jim will always be remembered in our hearts. He was such a caring , wonderful, funny, and giving man . From the first day I met him , I felt welcomed and loved. Charlie will forever remember his loving help when it was needed. At every moment you could always count on Big Jim ! We will always remember that drive to Delaware for my Nicky's motorcycle , always making friends and family happy. Uncle Jim , thank you for being in our lives. Love you, Charlie , Denise, Nicky,Dominick,Gianna

Denise and Charlie Barbuto - May 23, 2013 at 02:31 PM

RF

“ Family, It's been a true pleasure and honor to have known Jim. many laughs and wonderful family memories. A great man, a true patriarch and friend, you will be missed. Our hearts ache and our thoughts and prayers are with his amazing family.

Rich Narcisi & Family - May 23, 2013 at 01:15 PM

MS

“ James A. Martucci

Michael J. Stamm - May 23, 2013 at 10:07 AM

M(

“ My Beloved Brother-inlaw I will always hold you in my Heart for ever. You are so sadly missed by all. I hope the Martucci Family can find peace and comfort in knowing you will always be there in their hearts and spirit to guide them through lifes journey. God Bless

Mary Ann Naile (Advena) - May 23, 2013 at 08:05 AM

SG

“ Dear Trish and Family, We are so sad to hear about Mr. Martucci's passing. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. He will surely be missed by all that had the pleasure to know him. He was always such a teaser. I remember him always joking and pretending to give us a hard time when we were younger. We are thinking of you all at this difficult time. Stacy and John

Stacy and John Gray - May 22, 2013 at 11:05 PM

MB

“ Mark and Gina Battaglini has sent this Expressions of Sympathy card.

Mark and Gina Battaglini - May 22, 2013 at 06:47 PM

TC

“ Dear Martucci and Appello Family,
My heart aches for all of you with the passing of your "Dad". When I heard about dad passing I started remembering all the good times that I shared with him and your family. He always made me feel like his own daughter and he always made fun of me because I was from Ohio. He was a wonderful person, a wonderful father and wonderful husband and he will truly be missed. My thoughts and prayers will be with each and everyone of you and I hope you find comfort in knowing that your father was a great man and he is now in Heaven with all the angels and will forever be looking over all of you. Until we meet again, RIP "Dad" Martucci.....

Teresa Clark - May 22, 2013 at 03:25 PM

JN

“ Oh Daddy, how can this be so. My heart is aching for you so much. We still had so much to do. Errand to run, talks to have. I'm so grateful for our journey together. Some people never get to spend that much quality time with their Dad and we had that. Some people say you were lucky to have me but I was lucky to have you. I know you weren't tired or ready to give up, you were a fighter. It was just a slip of the eye and I lost you. You amazed every doctor you came in contact with and you were proving every sceptic wrong. What will I do without you. How I will miss those phone calls and those visits to Scoopy's. "Just a little twisty, daughter" But I knew you would eat that Ice cream no matter how big I made it because I knew you would do anything for me, as I would do anything for you. Even when you didn't want to pedal that bike you did it for my Henny. "Go Pop Pop Go" You will always be inside all of us. Because I am my father's daughter. Always. I'm am so proud to have called you my Dad. Thank you Daddy for everything you have taught me. Every project or intelligent or just street wise thing you taught me. I love you Daddy. Until we are together again, My Boola. Love your Daughter Jennie, always a Martucci, Narcisi.

Jennie Martucci Narcisi - May 22, 2013 at 12:47 PM

DM

“ My condolences to Jennie & Henry, Trish, and the entire Martucci Family. We all grew up together in the Oak Valley/Pine Acres area; and I used to speak to Mr. Martucci when I worked at Sparkle Pools in Woodbury in the early 90's. He was a very nice man. I'm sorry for your loss.

Dan Mangigian - May 22, 2013 at 11:19 AM

LN

“ Jim will be greatly missed, he was a true example of a family man, and we loved to listen to his dry sense of humor. Jim was the kind of man that once you met him you loved him! Our sincere condolences to The entire family. Love you and God Bless

Linda Narcisi - May 22, 2013 at 07:12 AM

BO

“ Dear Cha - so sorry to hear about your Dad. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Bonnie - May 21, 2013 at 08:59 PM

JM

“ Wanda, Jim, Jim and family, I am so sorry to hear about your father. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.
Take care, Julie Miller (Durham)

Julie Miller - May 21, 2013 at 05:23 PM