When we think of Jim, we think of a kind, loving, family man who was a sincere and true friend to us, that we always enjoyed spending time with. My cousin Jim was a very sweet, caring person who always kept in touch, even if we didn't see too much of each other as we got older. He was a really nice guy and I am so sorry he's gone. R.I.P. Jim.

“ *My brother Jim was a loving considerate guy.
As a teenager, I left home to become a nun when Jim was in the first grade, therefore, didn't know him well as a kid.*

We bonded as adults after I left the convent.

As luck would have it....my three siblings and I decided to zoom together during the pandemic. So every Saturday at 6:00PM Pat, Lee, Jim and I had a few laughs and a few drinks as we reminisced.

*I will forever be grateful for those forty-five minute meetings.
All of his life Jim put the three of us on a pedestal...being the “baby,”
he thought he thought we could do no wrong.*

RIP Jim.....my baby brother. You will be sorely missed.

“ Our sincere condolences to Nancy, Brian, Dana and their families. I remember playing softball for years with Jim, and he was the first one to call when Nova upset Georgetown, long before cell phones & texting. I was jumping around like a moron, by myself in my apartment, and it was so great to have someone call who was as happy as I was.

I still remember, on the night of my bachelor party, he took my keys & insisted on driving me home. Which actually is about all I remember from that night. Nobody drove me home in those days, I was stubborn & short-tempered. And of course, I was drunk to boot. I told him I was fine & to give me the keys. Jim said, "Jay, I'm driving you home or you'll have to take the keys from me."

Somehow he got through to me & I said OK & got into the passenger seat.

We had a good laugh later when he told me, "Jay, I almost s__t myself when I told you you'd have to take the keys from me, because you stared at me for a few seconds & I knew you were considering it."

A true loyal friend. Loved his family.

May God bless & comfort you, Nancy. Brian, Dana, sorry that you lost your dad at such a young age, with the kids so little.

Donna, Deb & I send our love.
