“ Janice Miller, sometimes we didn't see eye to eye. But, you had a heart of gold. You always had the fresh Chicken Parm cooked. You baked the best of everything in the neighborhood. You were always the one to be there and stick up for your kids. You will be missed. Love Ya Brian Nogiewich

“ Missing you my friend. I always told you how much I appreciated our friendship, you were my go to person when I needed advice or just everyday conversations about our families and politics. A more kind and giving person I probably will not cross paths with again. Rest easy my friend : "See you when I get there".

“ Words cannot express the love Janice had for others. She was so welcoming and mothering to those who needed it. As a young kid I can remember always looking forward to the days my dad would take me over to play with George and Walt, we'd go swimming until Janice would call us in for lunch and a movie and a needed nap. If you were with Janice you were taken care of as though you were family. She will be forever missed. Sending lots of love and light to the all Janice's family and friends. Love Rebecca and Lauren Jenkins
