I worked with Jason at the National Guard Memorial in Washington. He was a superb historian and a wonderful friend. I have fond memories of his passion for history. I am saddened to learn of his passing. Leaving us to young, may he rest in peace. Brig. Gen. Robert S. Dutko Sr. USAF Retired.

“ i never got to know you, I can only see from your Facebook you loved life and you fought (I'm sure of it) your illness till you were called to a greater ship. You were taken too early from your family, I am so happy you found your love of ships and family. your at peace and I pray the good lord looks over your mom and dad. I know you are missed and will always live in the hearts of your family and (from what I saw on FB) your loving and caring friends. I am so happy to see the man you became, the lives you touched, and the family you have. Rest in Peace

“ Perhaps the hardest thing for Me to is to say goodbye to someone who was such an inspiration to me. Every conversation,lunch,dinner and visit was filled with laughter,enthusiasm and knowledge that few people can understand.

Jason has left a huge void in my heart.

There are people that come into your heart and quickly leave, others come in and leave a footprint that will last forever. MAGOO, I loved you and always will.

Rest in peace. Give BUFF a hug for Me.

“ Jason Hall was one of a kind - in the best way possible. I'll always remember his kindness, his often irreverent humour, his oh-so-cheeky grin, his great knowledge of naval history and his passion for his battleship. Taken way too soon from us, but always remembered.
