“ Even though it's nearly fifty years since I last saw Jean, I will miss her. She visited me in 1970 in Williamstown, NJ. I'll always remember playing Jacks on the weekend and Monopoly. I'm surprised how much she resembles Aunt Fran. RIP Jeannie. Love, your not so little any more (step) sister, Valerie Johansen

“ *Cuz Jeannie,
You truly were a child of God, kind and thoughtful.
Your absence will be difficult. Be at peace with Tom.
Love and hugs,
Cuz Carol Joyce, Randy Penning. Jennifer, Brian Hern and boys

“ Thinking of you, Jean on your way to your heavenly home. You will be missed. We will think of you whenever friends and family gather. I recall Uncle Tom being Santa Claus for Chuck and David and of course you were Mrs. Santa. The summers at Cape May were magical. The family picnics at the patio didn't require much planning – just come and enjoy. It has been an amazing journey through good times and sad times.

Thanks Aunt Jean. Love, Your Sister-in-law Norma Hatton Lynch

“ Dear aunt Jean. You will be missed. From the recent Christmas's at our house with my boys to when I was a little boy and you and Tom would come see me and family at the beach. Very amazing and special person the world has lost. Love you aunt Jean. Enjoy your time with Tom and the cats! Love Matt, Sheila and the boys!
