“ My deepest sympathies to Bob, and Lori and Bob, and the rest of the family. I loved Jeane. I had the joy and honor of being at Jean's Bible study table for many years at Grace Bible. Because of that - I feel like I "know" so many of her kids and grandkids. She loved you all, and it was her favorite to talk about you. I am so touched as I remember Jeane's faithfulness in praying for my own kids and grandkids. An example of who Jeane was: When my daughter was pregnant with her second, after suffering miscarriages, and experiencing such anxiety and worry about the new pregnancy -- I remember Jeane with tears in her eyes, letting me know that she would pray everyday for this baby. So... she did what she did best -- she knitted! She made a beautiful baby blanket for my then unborn grandson, and she faithfully prayed for him, as she knitted. I couldn't begin to put into words how much that meant to my daughter, and to me. My now 10 year old grandson still has the blanket, and he fondly remembers the story of where it came from. When I told my daughter of Jeane's passing, she said "Oh, Everett will be so upset". <3
Grateful that Jeane is in Glory now, but this world is a little sadder without her. I love you, Jeane! <3

“ To Bob and Jeane's family: Jim and I have very fond memories of Jeane. She was always so hospitable, inviting us to game nights in the Troxel home to play board games with them and any other family members that happened to be there as well. We spent many hours in the car together, taking trips to Word of Life, Harvey Cedars, or Sandy Cove. I loved being invited to her fancy tea parties with a few other church ladies or friends, or a family birthday or Christmas gathering. Most of all, Jeane knew the Word from front to back. She was an amazing Bible teacher and I learned so much from sitting under her tutelage. She was an amazing woman and loved her Lord and Savior with her entire being. She was truly the Proverbs 31 woman.

Your mom and dad were the sweetest couple. Bob quite reserved, but Jeane had no problem showing her deep love and respect for her husband. It was always evident, whether on a road trips, or sitting behind them in church. Jeane would put her arm around Bob, and every once in a while she would rub his neck with her hand, and then run her fingers through the back of his hair. Bob would just sit there and let her do that while he concentrated on the message being preached. It always brought a smile to our face.

We have no doubt that Jeane is sitting at her Savior's feet just listening to Him, taking it all in. May you all feel peace and be comforted knowing she is where she is happiest.
