“ Like Ann said, there is an empty spot without Mom. Now there is one empty without Nan. They are suppose to be here and nothing can fill their place here on earth. Like Dad said they are always with us.

I know neither Nan or Mom would give up dancing on streets of gold. Their place is Heaven now. Our place is with each other, Nan & Mom will shout for joy when we advance forward, living the best life we can as a family. I can see them as they nudge each other. Telling all of Heaven as they say, did you hear what their families are doing now? Can you believe it? I'm so proud of our family! I knew they would do good!

I can see the smiles on those two ladies, laughing eyes full of happiness. Why not? They love their families! So I guess it's up to us to make them proud of us. That's what Dad says, Marie would be proud of that. Well now we can say, Nan & Marie would be proud of that. They are still our biggest cheerleaders. They just have a different address. It's called Heaven! Thank you Jesus!

“ Beautiful Lady inside & out. Loved by many, and will be missed by everyone.

Nan loved people, all her children, grandchildren, family, and friends.

Nan and Pops love for each other was a blessing for all to see. So in love with each other. You always saw them together as a perfect team, caring for each other every step of the way in a perfect love. With long life they were satisfied together.

Nan loved the book of First John in the bible. I know she is loving Heaven.

I would love to go on one more trip with the one who loved Disney more than anyone I've ever known. When Pops told us Nan was the biggest kid in Disney, he wasn't kidding. Nan's love for Disney was contagious!!!! Ask her family! Ask me!!! Yes!
