“ Doris, I just finished looking at Jeanne's video on the web site. It's beautifully done.
Your granddaughter presented an exceptionally well thought-out remembrance of her mom at yesterday's funeral service. In the past 5-6 days she has had to think about soooo much more than other children her age. Her letter to her mom was special to me.

“ We were saddened by the news Monday that God had decided to take you away. We had'nt seen you for awhile so it was great to see that big, radiant smile. You came to visit on Sunday, Oct 28 You enjoyed a walk to the lake. One week later, Sunday, Nov 4, It saddens our hearts, that we won't see you anymore. You left behind Britni and Steve You'll stay in their hearts...a place...where you never leave. So, today as family and friends reminisce with their memories, perhaps with tears and cry... Lets take a look up, There goes Jeanne on a Harley, taking her last ride to the sky! With our deepest sympathy and love, Ernie and Naja The Poconos

“ When I think of Jeannie, I think of her smile, her spirit and her heart. No matter what was going on in her life, she always had time and compassion for others. She loved her children, family and friends more than words could describe. She will be missed, but, never forgotten. God bless you.

“ *I lost my best friend.
I am so very, very sad.
Jeanne befriended me when I first moved to New Jersey in 1989.
She overwhelmed me with her wit and kindness. Her instinct was amazing and she was perceptive enough to remove me from harms way.
We immediately became best friends even though we didn't know it at the time.
Her sense of humor was the best of the best. She was so quick with the tongue. The lines around my mouth are from laughter not age!
I never enjoyed music as much as I did with Jeanne. Our "Gloria" days were glorioius! We had so much fun at Gloria's concert at Madison Square Garden. Jeanne's first time at the Garden. I even dropped my checkbook in the cab upon arrival with $400.00 cash in it and it was returned to me. Seriously!
Jeanne loved dogs as we all know. She took Quito (my Himalayan cat) and me into her home when we were in a temporary pinch. She fell in love with Quito. He fell in love with her. How many dog lovers can say that ?
I soon met Jeanne's family. They instantly welcomed me. They invited me into their home for the holidays and we enjoyed enourmous laughs and great food. Grandchildren abound, it was heaven. It meant so much to me to be around a full house over the holidays.
God Bless to the Murdock and Bosco families.
Your lovingly best friend,
Marilyn.*
