“ Chris, Kim, and Family, I am so sorry to hear of Jeff’s passing. I did not know him well, but will always remember the day he brought the 1968 Maxim Ladder truck #906, to the Fire House, when we were having a family function. Just so my dad could see it! It was the First Fire Truck that my dad was involved with purchasing as the Treasurer of the Almonesson Fire Company. That day brought such happiness to my dad! It brought back great memories. Jeff told him the story of locating the truck in Ohio and how he and help of others, were able to restore it to the Beauty it was. Thank you Jeff for your kindness, your service, and your dedication to all the members of the Deptford Fire Company, past and present, and their families. Rest in Peace 🙏

“ Jeff was my next door neighbor for over 40 years. I remember him fondly. There was a time after my husband had passed away, we had a snow storm. I woke up to find my whole driveway plowed. Jeff had done that without even being asked. Even though we didn't talk every day, I always knew he was there. I will miss you neighbor. Rest In Peace. 🙏❤️
