“ I only knew Jeff briefly after meeting him in the Teen Challenge program. Jeff and I shared the same sense of sarcasm in our sense of humor, and we enjoyed going back and forth with our senseless wit. It has been a pleasure knowing Jeff and only wish I could have had more time to know him more. Jeff said he was a truck driver in the past and we shared a few conversations about our mutual past profession. I'm blessed to have known him, and am praying for his family and friends in mourning. We love you Jeff and we miss you. See you soon buddy.
