

Jennifer D. Johnson

May 12, 1975 - October 19, 2019

Jennifer Johnson passed away in her home suddenly on 19 October, 2019 due to a hereditary heart condition. She was only 44 years old.

Jennifer joins her beloved parents in death, Brenda and Alan. Her life continues on through her four children who all love and miss her very much: Alex (18), Molly (23), Katelynn (24), Tate (26).

Jennifer was born in Liberal, KS on Mother's Day, 12 May 1975. She grew up in Amarillo, TX and moved back to Liberal where she graduated high school. In Liberal she brought three daughters into the world and one son. She was a detective for the Seward County Police Department. She later worked for Cargill in Wichita, KS and Amarillo, TX for over ten years. Finally, she moved to West Deptford, suburb of Philadelphia, where she studied to become a pharmaceutical technician for CVS pharmacy. She lived there very happily with her youngest daughter, Alexandria.

Jennifer loved the rain; she loved singing loudly to music; she loved her Yorkie, Bella and cat, Monkey; she loved cooking and reading and watching films; she loved her partner, Evelyn Alvarez; and she loved her family – above all, her children.

Everywhere Jennifer went she touched the lives of many people. She was so intelligent, funny, interesting, fun, organized, loyal, and honest — And we are all changed for the better because we knew her.

Services Private.
