

Jerrilyn P. Sroga

April 18, 1942 - August 6, 2023

Jerrilyn P. Sroga (nee Applegate) on August 6, 2023 of Deptford. Beloved mother. Jerri was a lifelong resident of New Jersey. Born in Trenton, she also lived in Yardville, Mercerville, Williamstown, and finally Deptford. Preceded by her mother, Dorothy Helen Black, father Ken Applegate and grandmother Irene Constance Black.

Jerri loved going to Long Beach Island, was an exceptional cook who loved making food for her family, watched General Hospital daily, and loved watching classic TV shows, such as Leave It to Beaver, Ozzie and Harriet, Hazel and Murder She Wrote. She also loved reading Agatha Christie novels. But what she loved most was being with her family.

Jerri is survived by Jeff, David and her beautiful little girl Anna, who she loved dearly. Anna was her world.

If there was one way to describe "Mom" would be this. She was a mom without peer. She will be missed dearly.
