“ Alicia, Julie, Michael and Mel, Your mom and wife loved all of you dearly and would not like to see you cry even though you feel like crying. She is watching over all of you and she was truly a beautiful person, inside and out. It is hard to deal with the fact that she is no longer suffering but try to be glad of that fact and she will be with you always. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Joan, you put up a courageous fight and I am proud of you. I can not even imagine not hearing your voice again. Sleep well and easy, my friend and adopted sister. Watch over all of us that loved you. You are very much missed.

“ Alicia, My heart goes out to you and your family. Having only met your mom briefly, I feel that I'd come to know her a little better through you. Your Mother was a strong woman and quite the fighter! (She passed those traits to you!) Seeing her in this video memorial really brings that home. I can see what a great love your family shared. Remember that she will NEVER be truly gone from any of your hearts!! L.

“ I will always remember Joan for all of her facial expressions. As a friend of Alicia's for quite sometime, Joan was never at a loss for telling us her opinion (Whether we wanted to hear it or not)and rolling her eyes when we had crazy ideas or stories!! Try to remember her when she was witty and well, she would love that.

“ Wow, Alicia, you have your mother's smile ...
Please accept my heartfelt condolences upon your loss. It won't be easy ... but take some comfort in the obvious fact [shown in those pictures] that she loved and was loved in return.
Peace, my friends.

“ So many wonderful memories of Joan in the video tribute. Joan always seemed so ageless, it hardly seems possible that she has gone beyond. She was a dear friend who will be missed greatly. My prayers are with her and with the wonderful family she leaves behind. I remember Joan teaching me to say "Ma Armastand Sind" (I love you) in Estonian to my husband years ago. I say it back to her now. Farewell, friend.
